Whether for career development or personal knowledge...The presenter offers an in-depth perspective on some of the newest evolving national debates, coupled with the latest criminal intelligence available.

The curriculum is as intriguing as it is thought provoking, providing the attendee with a vast array of knowledge that will empower them to formulate a better understanding of cultural issues and ideology, so as to more effectively understand and interact with this émigré ethnic group.

Topics include:

An Understanding of the Qur'an, Sunnah and Hadiths

The People, Their Customs, and Beliefs

Women in Islam

Sharia Law & Banking...What is it?

Influences Into the Classroom, Criminal Justice & Politics

Understanding Extremist Thought & Logic

Frauds, Schemes & Scams

Tips for Interacting With The Middle Eastern Community

Who Should Attend...

The class is ideal for all members of the criminal justice community, corrections, parole & probation, educators & school administrators, social services representatives, US Armed Forces, members of the intelligence community, and all who might have occasion to engage with members of the Middle Eastern community, or seek to broaden their base of understanding.

The Presenter... Cathy Hinnners, is a recently retired, 20 year intelligence officer of the Albany (NY) Police Department. Much of Cathy's career was spent providing police services within Albany's large Middle Eastern community, where she developed an acute awareness of cultural and ethnic-community traits and characteristics. Over the years this professional interest was honed into an area of specialization, and was supplemented by dozens of training and educational seminars in order to enhance her field work. Cathy currently serves as a research fellow, subject matter expert consultant, quest speaker, law enforcement trainer, and can be frequently heard as a radio commentator discussing matters related to the Middle Eastern community
